The latest reports regarding the important campaign in the Rumanian proving them. Field Marshal Von Mackensen's attempt to break the allies' lines broken arm and will recover. formed to defend the Constanza railroad evidently having failed the opposing 179,000 UNIONISTS forces now appear deadlocked along the front from the Danube to the Black sea.

The current statement from Bucharest announces only artillery duels along the Danube. It declares, however, that the Rumanians have made some progress on their left flank resting on the seacoast. In the invasion of Transylvania the Rumians report success in an attack at Hermannstadt. Nearly 7,000 prisoners have been taken by the Rumanians so far in the Transvlvania campaign.

To-day's official statement from Petro grad says there are events of importance weather is hampering the operations. Of-ficial reports and private despatches indicate that fall rains are interfering with the progress of hostilities on virtually all the battle fronts.
